Dashboard

After successful login, the dashboard is loaded. You can find summary of your sales broken down into today, last 7 days and last month.

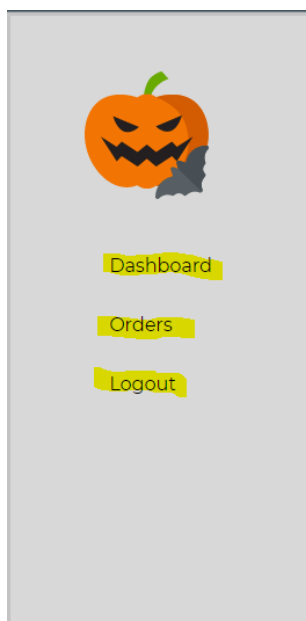

Below that is a chart view with a toggle.

The toggle allows you to switch between the weekly statistics and yearly.

On your left, there is the navigation side where you can logout or go to your orders.

Orders

Show a log of all your orders in time or date, the current status of the order and units ordered.

You can search through to filter the defined table.

There is also pagination.
